JULY 2018

Greetings!

We hope your summer is off to a fun start! This newsletter includes updated information about party bus regulations--what you should know before you rent one. We also included a story about how to avoid dangerous bug bites as the bug population has exploded after the recent heavy rains. Plus we have some special announcements to share with you. We selected the winner of our first annual scholarship competition and created a partnership with a local arts organization. We are proud to support our community. Have a safe and happy summer!

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE YOU RENT A PARTY BUS

Many rental companies now offer party buses for large groups. These buses can be a fun experience and convenient when attending large public events. But the City of Chicago recently adopted strict party bus regulations so we prepared a blog with information you need before you decide to rent a party bus for your next group outing.

ANNOUNCING THE FIRST WINNER OF THE ANNUAL R.F. WITTMAYER, LTD. ILLINOIS COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

Student Celia Hueras has been involved in community service since the age of five in Kingston, Illinois

We are pleased to announce the winner of the first annual "Law Offices of R.F. Wittmeyer, Ltd. Illinois Community Service Scholarship", Celia Huerta. We are proud to help a young member of the Kingston community continue her dreams of pursuing an education in nursing. According to Celia, "This scholarship will help reduce my college fund costs so I can soon go on by furthering my nursing career and continue to help people in the process of reaching my goals."

Watch this video and read more about Celia's commitment to community service in the Kingston, Illinois area.
